The cathedral is one of the significant centers in the country regarding stability, collapsed states and the ultimate load-bearing capacity of thin-walled structures. The expression for recognition of the achievements of the employees of the Department of Strength of Materials and Structures in the field of structural stability is the election of the chairman of the Structural Stability Team of the Machine Building Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences (from 1981 until present) prof. Jerzy Leyko, followed by prof. Marian Królak.

The members of our Department concentrate on the following issues:

- theoretical, numerical (including FEM) and experimental analysis of the stress and strain state in elements of machines and structures,
- stability, collapsed states and ultimate load-bearing capacity of thin-walled structures under static and dynamic loads,
- static strength of materials and structures, fatigue strength.
