

Application form for ECIU Seed programme (SP1)

The objective is to promote inter-institutional collaboration through the blended exchange of research and innovation staff to create new consortia.

The expected outcome is a solid foundation for a new, long-lasting collaboration among the participating ECIU Institutions.

By new consortia, the call means consortia composed of researchers who have not collaborated before on a joint project involving all involved institutions in the specific proposal for the Seed programme SP1.
